

Boo

- Better as an only dog but can tolerate low energy doggy pals if necessary. #introvertenergy
- Dog savvy cats.
- Adult ONLY home.
- Quiet & calm household required.
- Slow to trust but a complete gem when she feels safe.
- Must have at least one female in the family.

I LIKE...

- Playing with my toys, especially fetch.
- Going for long walks, it helps me burn off my energy.
- My mom. I love bonding with the ladies in my life but I can also learn to love a true gentleman, I just need to be wooed.
- Chasing the cat, it's a good form of indoor exercise. When the cat stops I will stop too. It's just a game.
- My home & my family once I feel safe and have an opportunity to settle.

Boo

I DON'T LIKE...

- Men but only at first.
- High energy dogs.
- Kids.
- Rules, boundaries & routines but they are necessary for my overall happiness even if I like to test them & you.
- New & unfamiliar situations. I take time to warm up.

MY TRAINING...

Housetrained:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No	I am a lady.

Boo

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM ME...

Boo is my name, but you can also call me Boo Boo! I'm a girl that needs time to adjust to any new situation; I have "stranger danger" quirks. I love to go for walks and explore the outdoors, I really enjoy barking at the birds at the feeders, and I get a kick out of chasing the chipmunks and squirrels. I need my home to be on the quiet side - not busy or bustling. I take some time to warm up to human men, but if the female human in the home establishes a good, solid relationship then I like both the women and men! I love to play with toys and fetch a ball, and I need a good walk daily. I can be a bit of a goof when I get settled into a home with structures and boundaries. You see, I like to test to see how much I can get away with, as I'm a very smart cookie! I love the car too! And one last thing, if you leave your kitchen chair pulled away from the table, I'll get on the table to inspect it. Don't say you haven't been warned! But seriously, I'm a ton of fun. Should we meet?

I AM...

- Shy
- Unconfident & anxious
- Fearful of strangers
- Goofy
- Playful
- Smart. I like to push & test my boundaries but I do very well with structure.

Boo

AND NOW A FEW WORDS FROM MY FOSTER FAMILY...

Boo is a quirky, smart little girl. She takes the lead from a female human first, and if the male human can take time and be patient, she will do well with everyone. Absolutely no children for Boo; a quiet home with routine would be best. Boo has some mild anxiety which is not unusual in this breed. She can put on quite a show of bossiness but with boundaries and rules she does well after a period of transition. She "tested" the humans in her foster home but learned rather quickly that she is not the boss or the leader of the house. She is currently being fostered with a dog-savvy cat. She barks at the cat and will chase it until the cat stops at which time Boo puts on the brakes and all is fine. Boo really needs a good walk and some training minutes during the day, along with patience and understanding. She is good with low-energy dogs that are not intrusive. She wants to play but doesn't know how to do that. Boo's forever home should be quiet with no children, and her new family will need to help her settle in as she takes some time to feel comfortable in new surroundings. Her new family will have a happy little quirky girl to entertain them. Mandatory meet and greet in Almonte Ont.
