Please complete all sections:

Name(s):	Darla
Age:	1-2 years old
Size (weight):	21.4 lbs
Coat & colour:	Short-haired; brown/white (piebald)
Primary Breed:	Dachshund	Secondary Breed	Basset Hound
			Mix breed Y
Temperament:	Sweet, but insecure in new situations. Darla is very affectionate and wants to always be with her humans. She will do best in a quiet home with another small, playful dog. She gets overwhelmed if put into a new environment with too many new people and dogs.
Good with Dogs:	Darla currently does not get along with large dogs. She does fine with the two resident Dachshunds; in fact, she loves them more than they love her. She really wants to play but they are cranky seniors.
Good with Cats:	Unknown
Good with Kids:	Unknown; possibly with older teenagers
Needs another Dog:	Would do best with another playful, small dog	Needs to be an only Dog:	No
Housetraining:	This is a work in progress. We have come a long way in 2 weeks. She does well when kept on a schedule.
Crate Trained:	Yes, crate and x-pen trained.
Suitable for an Apt.:	Still under consideration. Possibly, but she does bark if she can see outside.
Origin:	Owner surrender	Adoption Fee:	$800.00

And now a few words from me:

Hi there! I'm Darla and I'm just a "happy-go-lucky" bundle of energy when I'm in my quiet home with my foster mom. I'm hoping for a new home with another small, playful dog. I currently reside with two seniors, and while I like them fine, they won't play with me despite my best efforts. Do you want to PLAY? With play comes the need for sleep and I sleep comfortably in a soft crate at night beside the big bed. However, I do like the big bed, and I always get a morning cuddle. My foster mom laughs at me as she says I have lots of dreams and sometimes, I snore too. I'm also happy to curl up next to you and watch TV. In fact, if you should fall asleep with me on the couch, I like to snuggle around your head. I really like having people around most of the time! I would love to go to a home where someone is mostly at home, but I also do quite well in my x-pen. Do you think you have a little time and patience for a sweet girl like me? I sure hope so, because as much as I love it here, I can't wait to meet my very own forever family.

And now a few words from my foster family:

CANADIAN DACHSHUND RESCUE (Ontario) Foster Dog Bio Template

Darla is just a darling little girl and warmed to me (foster mom) very quickly. She barks at visitors coming to the home – we are working on corrections. Otherwise, she doesn't bark at lot. However, she's only been here a short time, so the jury is still out. Darla seems to do just fine on car rides. She is tethered to the dog bed in the backseat and rides along with no issues. She is starting to learn leash walking but oddly does not want to leave our property. We have been going to the park by car to walk. She was away from the home for the weekend and happily went walking. Darla is not completely housetrained. However, she is doing very well on schedule.

She just hears the word OUT and she races for the back door. She'd be so very happy if she had access to a fenced backyard in her forever home. Darla is still very puppy-like and still needs to learn some manners, so she would greatly benefit from some training classes. She is just adorable and a lucky family will hit the jackpot with her. I think that she would do best in a quiet home where there are not a lot of visitors.
