

Registered Charity # 825522030RR0001

CANADIAN DACHSHUND RESCUE (Ontario)
Form Document 026 – Effective Date: 23/08/2023

Author AK

SUBJECT

Foster Dog Bio Template

Please complete all sections:

Name(s):	Duke
Age:	14 years old
Size (weight):	17 lbs.
Coat & colour:	Short-haired, brown
Primary Breed:	Dachshund	Secondary Breed	N/A	Mix breed	N/A
Temperament:	Sweet, calm, and independent but can be a little unsure in new situations. Duke just loves his people and wants to be with them.
Good with Dogs:	Yes. Good with all dogs, big and small.
Good with Cats:	Yes
Good with Kids:	Yes
Needs another Dog:	Would do well with another dog	Needs to be an only Dog:	No
Housetraining:	Yes
Crate Trained:	Yes
Suitable for an Apt.:	Probably not; Duke can bark when left alone.
Origin:	Owner surrender	Adoption Fee:	$450.00

And now a few words from me:

Hi! I'm Duke, a 14-year-old Dachshund with a gentle heart and lots of love to give. I get along well with kids, enjoy the company of other dogs, and love being wherever my people are. If you're in the kitchen, I'll happily keep you company. In fact, I'll probably follow you from room to room just to make sure you don't get lonely.

One of my favourite things is spending time in the backyard, taking my time sniffing around and exploring every interesting scent. I have that classic Dachshund curiosity! Squirrels and bunnies definitely catch my attention, and I love watching them or giving them a little chase when I'm out on my walks. And speaking of walks, I get so excited when it's time for a walk, and I'm a perfect gentleman on my leash. Sometimes, when we get home, I still can't contain my excitement and do a few happy zoomies before settling in!

Another thing I LOVE are treats! They make my little tail wag, and I'm always happy to show off my good manners if there's a tasty reward involved. My good manners also extend to my housetraining; I'm housetrained and will let you know when I need to go outside. Like many senior dogs, I have a couple of quirks: I get anxious when left alone, and car rides aren't really my favourite. But if you're looking for a loyal little companion with a sweet soul, I might just be your guy.

What would I like in a forever home? I'd like a loving home where I can enjoy my golden years, one walk, one backyard sniffari, one tasty treat, and one happy zoomie at a time.

And now a few words from my foster family:

CANADIAN DACHSHUND RESCUE (Ontario) Foster Dog Bio Template

Duke has been an absolute pleasure to foster. When Duke first arrived, he was very quiet and understandably a little unsure of himself. Watching his personality emerge has been one of the most rewarding parts of fostering him. These days, he happily plays with his toys, gets the occasional case of the zoomies, and has settled into a wonderful routine.

Duke is fantastic with children, gets along beautifully with other dogs of all sizes, and is also cat-friendly. While I think he'd enjoy having another dog as a companion, he certainly doesn't need one. He would be just as happy being someone's one and only little shadow.

Like many rescue dogs, Duke had a bit of separation anxiety when he first came into foster care. He would bark for a while when left alone and occasionally had nervous accidents in the house. I'm happy to say both have improved tremendously. The nervous peeing has stopped, and he settles much more quickly now.

He's crate trained, although if given the choice, he'd much rather sleep in a cozy bed beside you. Duke is an independent little fellow, but he always likes to know where you are and will quietly follow you from room to room just to keep you company.

He absolutely loves his walkies and is a joy to walk. He has lovely leash manners and will let you know when he needs to go outside for a bathroom break. He also enjoys sniffing around the backyard, keeping an eye on the squirrels and bunnies, and, of course, accepting treats whenever they're offered.

Duke is simply a lovely little dog with the sweetest, gentlest soul. He's looking for a family who will appreciate all the love, quiet companionship, and happiness he has to offer. His adoptive family will be lucky to have him!