And now a few words from me:

Hi there! I'm Maurice, the happiest little Dachshund you'll ever meet!

At 5 years old, I've recently shed some extra pounds and am feeling like a brand-new pup! With my new silhouette and boundless energy, I'm ready to find my forever home where I can share all the love and joy in my heart.

Let me tell you a bit about myself. I'm the ultimate goofball, always wagging my little tail and greeting everyone with a big smile! My favorite activities include zooming around the house, playing tug-of-war with my toys, and, of course, snuggling up with my humans for some cozy quiet time. My playful spirit lights up the room, and I can't wait to shower my new family with affection!

I'm looking for a loving family that appreciates my playful nature. Ideal companions will give me plenty of attention, take me on strolls, and share lots of cuddle time on the couch. I promise to be a loyal and affectionate friend, always eager to brighten your day with my charm and silly antics.

If you're looking for a warm-hearted, fun-loving wiener dog who will make you smile every single day, then let's meet!

Together, I know we'll create wonderful memories and lots of belly laughs. Woof!

And now a few words from my foster family:

As Maurice's foster parent, I've had the pleasure of watching this joyful 5-year-old Dachshund thrive during his weight loss journey. At first, Maurice was a bit unsure of his new surroundings, but it didn't take long for his personality to shine through. His happy-go-lucky spirit is infectious, and it's been wonderful to see him adjust to the routine of our home with such eagerness.

Maurice has been learning the ropes around here, and I must say, he's a quick study! He took some time to get accustomed to our daily schedule, from mealtimes to playtime, but now he fits right in. He's developed a delightful rhythm with us and has established a wonderful routine that includes his favorite games and cuddles on the couch. Watching him embrace structure has been a highlight of his foster journey.

One of the most heartwarming aspects of Maurice's stay with us has been his relationship with his timid foster sister, Tiny. At first, Tiny was a little shy around him, unsure of this energetic newcomer. But Maurice's gentle nature and playful demeanor quickly won her over! It's beautiful to watch them interact now. Their bond continues to blossom, and it's evident that Maurice brings out the best in her.

And let's not forget about Boo, our resident feline! Initially, Maurice was curious about Boo, but he quickly learned to respect his space. With a little gentle encouragement and trust-building, they've established a peaceful coexistence. Maurice is inquisitive but never overly aggressive, and he often just watches Boo with a wagging tail and a happy demeanor, content to share a home with him.

Maurice has one little quirk about him, he does not like the fireplace poker and becomes fixated with it when we go to open and load the wood stove. A simple solution is having him follow me to another room and leaving him in there for the 5 minutes it takes to load the wood. He also thinks that anything new coming into the house is for him and gets really happy about stuff!

Maurice is not just adapting, he's thriving. He's a bundle of energy and joy, always eager for a walk, a game of fetch, or some quality cuddle time. If you're considering adding a delightful and affectionate dog to your family, Maurice is ready to share all his love and laughter. With a little bit of patience, you'll find that he brings an incredible warmth to any home. You won't regret giving this charming pup the forever home he truly deserves!
