And now a few words from me:

Hello, my name is Olivia and I'm looking for a forever friend and companion. I may not be as young as I used to be, but I make up for that by being a cuddly companion. I'm happy to be near my humans, and if the weather is nice, I'm up for a short stroll. If my human is not close by, I'm glad to have the company of a brother or sister dog. I'm happy at mealtime, of course, and am pleased to dine with my foster dog buddies. I'm also happy to have them close by so I can learn the routine in my foster home, but the humans are the most important part of the family. Would you like to meet?

And now a few words from my foster family:

Olivia is a small, cuddly dog who values human companionship. Her houstraining is generally reliable, but if there is a delay in getting her outside after breakfast, she may have an accident. Olivia is happy to go on short walks if the weather is good and is very polite meeting other dogs and people along the way. Olivia is particularly happy to sit close to her humans. While Olivia would be fine as an only dog, she has no trouble sharing a home with another dog or two.

*Medical Notes: Several years ago (before she was surrendered to CDRO), Olivia had what has been described as a bulged disk which temporarily paralyzed her two hind legs. With medication given at that time, she recovered and gained the use of her hind legs again and has been fine while in foster care.
