And now a few words from me:

Hi! I'm Archie and as you can see, I'm a dapper fellow! I'm very energetic, curious and up for any adventure. I would love to be part of an active family that will play with me and take me on outings. I like car rides too, and all kinds of activities like chasing squirrels and birds, boating, paddle boarding, camping and swimming! Do I sound like the perfect adventure buddy for you and your family? Let's meet!

And now a few words from my foster family:

Archie is a very sweet boy; he's loyal and affectionate. Archie prefers not to be left alone. We have been working on his separation anxiety by leaving him in the company of his foster brother and sister for short periods of time. Being with other dogs reassures him, so he would benefit from having a calm brother or sister to lead by example in his forever home. Archie's new owners will need to be patient with him and continue to slowly build his confidence as they increase the amount of time he is left alone. Archie responds very well to positive reinforcement training; he needs a handler who will continue to work with him on obedience training, leash walking and recall, to help him become the adventurer ever! He is still young, very playful and fun loving, and he wins the hearts of everyone he meets.
