And now a few words from me:

Hi! My name is Watson and although I'm a senior, I still have lots of spark left in my engine! I go for daily walks in the park and try to chase every squirrel that crosses my path. I'm searching for the perfect retirement home where I can enjoy my family, go for walks and spend my quiet time on a soft bed with lots of blankets. I follow the sun to nap during the day and spend my nights on a dog bed near my people. My foster mom says that I'm an affectionate and loving happy-go-lucky guy! Would you like to meet?

And now a few words from my foster family:

Watson is a great little dog whose tail is constantly wagging, and he bounces when he's excited. He is quite clever and quickly learned the routines of his foster home. Like most Dachshunds he loves snacks, walks and snoozing in sunbeams. He is very possessive of his toys, so supervision is required with other dogs around. He eats on his own placemat in the same room with the other dogs, but he does not tolerate being approached by them while eating. He may be a senior, but he acts and moves like a much younger dog.
